JUNIOR ENTERTAINMENT.

The Junior program given by the pupils of the school in Central Hall on Friday evening last, was a grand success in every way. Every part was well taken and everything worked smoothly. The instrumental solos by Elizabeth Lothian, George Windsor and Christie Park were well rendered and received much applause. The recitations by Ralph Strevel, Hazel Wharton and Olive Ballentine were humorous and enjoyed by all. Freda Wallace, Golda Beatty and Leona Holcomb each sang a solo in their usual excellent manner. Our ladies quartette composed of the Misses Eva and Stella Francis, Ina Palmer and Rhea Hisey so delighted the audience with their first selection, that they were called back for another. The drill given by the boys of the third grade was exceedingly fine. Each boy dressed to represent some artisan, during the drill mimicked the part he was taking. These actions provoked much laughter.

The dialogue by boys of the sixth grade was supposed to be a scene from real life. The troubles of a private secretary seem to be many. But it remained for the pupils of the High School to present the principal act of the evening, that of a farce on Free Masonry. Everyone interested in this farce took their parts well. It can truly be said that we have much theatrical talent in our schools. This program was interspersed with music by the Yale orchestra.

The play was a success financially also, about $25.00 being cleared.

NEW FIRM IS SUCCESSFUL.

The Fort Dodge Corrugated Steel Culvert Co., which located here only a short time ago with a plant near the old Rock Island depot report that its business in this city is meeting with marked success. Three salesmen have been sent out through the territory in this state and orders have been sent in so fast that the company has been forced to double its force and the plant is now running night and day to supply the demand for its out-put. This news will be gladly received by the city which has voted in favor of this new industry from the time of its location here. The company plans on important improvements in its plant in the near future. The Fort Dodge (Iowa) Messenger, Saturday, May 26, 1906.

The above company is the one in which H. E. Beard of our city is interested. The Expositor is glad to learn that our worthy townsman is meeting with such marked success in his new venture. Mr. Beard is in Iowa this week.

DECORATION DAY OBSERVED.

Decoration day broke cloudy and dreary and about eight o'clock the rain began to fall continuing most of the forenoon. The school children's march to the cemetery, which has been a feature of the day's exercises for several years, had to be omitted. The members of the local Grand Army Post, however, marched to the cemetery and the usual ceremonies were performed.

In the afternoon a large number, considering the day, gathered in Central Hall and listened to some of the best addresses which were ever delivered in Yale on a similar occasion. Revs. C. D. Ellis, Jonathan A. Thompson, J. S. Raum, of Yale, and Judge Harvey Tappan, of Port Huron, were the speakers and their eloquent and patriotic utterances were fully appreciated by all.

A choir consisting of some of Yale's best musical talent rendered three fine anthems and at the close all joined in singing "America." Rev. Raum pronounced the benediction. Although the weather was unfavorable the Yale Cornet Band rendered several fine selections on the streets during the day, and marched to the cemetery with the G. A. R. Post.

In the afternoon a base ball game was played at Riverside Park between two local nines which was quite interesting.

STRAYED—Came to the enclosure of David Rose 4 miles south and 1 1/2 miles west of Yale, on Saturday last, one aged horse, color bay. Owner can have same by calling, proving property and paying costs. 6-2
